Elca Liturgical Calendar:

The Gates of Hell Matthew Heise, 2022-05-11 The gates of hell shall not prevail Decimated by war revolution and famine the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Russia was in critical condition in 1921 In The Gates of Hell Matthew Heise recounts the bravery and suffering of German Russian Lutherans during the period between the two great world wars These stories tell of ordinary Christians who remained faithful to death in the face of state persecution Christians in Russia had dark days characterized by defeat but God preserved his church Against all human odds the church would outlast the man made sandcastles of communist utopianism The Gates of Hell is a wonderful testimony to the enduring power of God's word Christ's church and the Spirit's faithfulness

Daring to Share Sandra Beardsall, Mitzi J. Budde, William P. McDonald, 2018-06-29 Multi denominational congregations offer rich soil for new interpretations of what it means to be a church These parishes have chosen to covenant together for worship service ministry mission and nurturing of faith across two or more denominational traditions Daring to Share tells their stories investigates their practices and proposes a fresh vision of church for the twenty first century This book equips ordained and lay leaders for the formation and flourishing of such ministries It describes five models of partnership analyzes the parish life cycle interprets how worship works addresses constitutional and governance issues and reflects theologically on the intersection of diversity and unity What can we learn from these congregations Studying their particular witness struggles and promise for the future fills a gap in both congregational studies and contemporary ecclesiology Multi denominational parishes are more than a convenient way to revitalize congregational ministry They present new opportunities and approaches for sharing the gospel Ecumenical convergence meets demographic realities to suggest a mission strategy that will transform local practice and perhaps the church itself By daring to share these churches challenge a fractured world

The Church in Act Maxwell E. Johnson, 2015-04-01 The Church in Act explores the dynamics of ecclesial and liturgical theology examining the body of Christ in action Maxwell E. Johnson provides in this volume historical and doctrinal thinking on a diversity of liturgical subjects under the umbrella of Lutheran liturgical theology in ecumenical conversation From baptismal spirituality to Eucharistic concerns the volume offers a robust account of the liturgical sacramental and spiritual practices of the church for scholars students pastors and others who seek to minister in an ecumenical context with increased understanding and insight

A Brief History of Saints Lawrence S. Cunningham, 2008-04-15 A Brief History of Saints follows the rise of the cult of saints in Christianity from its origin in the age of the martyrs down to the present day Refers to both well known saints such as Joan of Arc and lesser known figures like the holy fools in the Orthodox tradition Ranges over subjects as diverse as the history of canonization processes the Reformation critique of the cult of saints and the role of saints in other religious traditions Discusses the relevance of sainthood in the postmodern era Two appendices describe patron saints and the iconography of saints in art

On Being a Church Member in the ELCA Robert J. Marshall, 2007      The Living Church , 1994-07      American

Magnificat Maxwell E. Johnson, 2010-01-01 When Our Lady of Guadalupe appeared to Juan Diego at Tepeyac she sent him to the bishop with the message that she desired a hermitage where all people would be welcomed and would experience her love And yet until recently the message of Guadalupe has been limited to Catholics particularly Mexicans and Mexican Americans With this volume of essays however a variety of Protestant theologians engage the tradition surrounding Our Lady of Guadalupe to demonstrate that she has a place in Protestant churches The multicultural dynamic of today's churches Catholic and Protestant alike means that cultural elements of people's faith cannot be dismissed Rather they are to be explored and contemplated possibly embraced and integrated into the broader church life By critically and thoughtfully engaging the Guadalupe story the authors in this volume provide insights on how Our Lady can be welcomed into the prayer life and worship of Protestant communities With a foreword by Timothy Matovina and concluding reflection by Virgil Elizondo

Worship at a Crossroads Melinda A. Quivik, 2023-04-13 This book calls Protestant churches and the ELCA in particular to a church wide conversation about racism It is a response to the 2019 book Dear Church by Lenny Duncan a former Lutheran pastor who is Black and who among other reparations calls for changing the church's worship in order to address segregated Sundays Changes in worship affect theological foundations Informed consideration is essential Because entering into life changing conversations requires vulnerability and commitment this book includes several narratives my life as a White woman and pastor the history of the Black church as defined by Black theologians the development of the liturgical renewal movement and my experiences as a professor navigating worship conflicts as my seminary struggled with financial constraints and a changing student body The seminary conflicts offered me a window into how better to address racism inspired by the example of post WWII German truth telling and how some US Southern states have come to grips with the history of the Jim Crow South described in Susan Neiman's Learning from the Germans This book outlines a way forward for churches in responding to racism by encouraging healthy engagement with contentious relationships as a necessity for healing

The Serious Business of Worship Melanie Ross, Simon Jones, 2011-11-03 The study of liturgy has received criticism from scholars and practitioners alike the academic discipline of liturgiology has been compared to the hobby of stamp collection and proponents for liturgical renewal argue that worship must be made more accessible and relevant Bryan Spinks has been an important moderating voice in this discussion reminding both academic and ecclesial communities that Christ is made known in the liturgical riches of the past as well as in contemporary forms of the present Inspired by Spinks work this volume brings together biblical historical and theological scholars to discuss the theme of continuity and change in worship Its historical range begins with the early church extends through the Reformation and concludes with a discussion of issues facing contemporary liturgical reform In recognition of the fact that Professor Spinks work has been widely influential in both Europe and the United States the editors have solicited liturgical perspectives from scholars with international reputations on sides of the Atlantic

A. Harmakaputra, 2022-09-19 In A Christian Muslim Comparative Theology of Saints: The Community of God's Friends Hans A. Harmakaputra focuses on a question that emerges from today's multi-faith context: Is it possible for Christians to recognize non-Christians as saints? To answer affirmatively, he offers a Christian perspective on an inclusive theology of saints through the lens of comparative theology that is based on the thought of Catholic, Protestant, and Muslim theologians: Karl Rahner, Jean-Luc Marion, Elizabeth Johnson, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Paul Tillich, and Ibn Arab. As a result of this interreligious comparison, three theological constructs emerge: 1) saints as manifestations and revealers of God's self-communication; 2) the hiddenness of saints; and 3) saints as companions. These theological constructs redefine and reconfigure Christian understanding of saints on one hand, and on the other hand, provide theological reasoning to include non-Christians in the Christian notion of the communion of saints.
