Specialist Periodical Reports provide systematic and detailed review coverage of progress in the major areas of chemical research Written by experts in their specialist fields the series creates a unique service for the active research chemist supplying regular critical in depth accounts of progress in particular areas of chemistry For over 80 years the Royal Society of Chemistry and its predecessor the Chemical Society have been publishing reports charting developments in chemistry which originally took the form of Annual Reports However by 1967 the whole spectrum of chemistry could no longer be contained within one volume and the series Specialist Periodical Reports was born The Annual Reports themselves still existed but were divided into two and subsequently three volumes covering Inorganic Organic and Physical Chemistry For more general coverage of the highlights in chemistry they remain a must Since that time the SPR series has altered according to the fluctuating degree of activity in various fields of chemistry Some titles have remained unchanged while others have altered their emphasis along with their titles some have been combined under a new name whereas others have had to be discontinued      Metal Cleaning and Finishing ,1929      Distinctive Techniques For Organic Synthesis Tse-lok Ho,1998-06-23 This important book is intended to familiarize the practitioner of synthetic chemistry with somewhat extraordinary techniques which should prove very helpful to his or her work It covers some reactions or techniques for organic synthesis which are not found in most introductory texts They include reactions under high pressure mediated by ultrasonic flash vacuum pyrolysis photochemical processes phase transfer reactions electrochemical reactions and reactions on solid supports The emphasis of the book is on applications Examples are often drawn from significant contributions such as natural product syntheses      Current Organic Chemistry ,1999-03      The Readers' Guide and Students' Review Hampstead Public Libraries (London, England),1909
